1. Call to Order
2. Roll Call & Introductions
3. Approval of June & July Minutes
4. Pali Wine Company discussion and vote

Issue arose after June meeting about requiring enterprise zone parking requirements on small properties. Size of establishment would require 3 spots. Committee agreed to revisit and consider recommendations to waive projects below 1,000 square feet from the enterprise zone requirement

We are renewing our Conditional Use Permit approval for on and off-site sale of beer and wine. We are also requesting approval to add an outdoor patio, and formally assign the triangle lot parking to Angel City Brewery. Finally, we request any conditions of approval allow the many community, charity and neighborhood organization activities we host on site and in the triangle lot, such as the farmer's market, to continue serving the Arts District.
